ST. ALBERT ELECTION.

Morinville polling division comprises all of townships 55, 56, 57, and 58, range 25;

the eastern half of township 53, range 26; all of townships 56, 57, and 58, ranges 26 and 27, west of fourth meridian; townships 57 and 58, range 1, west of fifth meridian. Polling station at Telephone Munier's residence, section 36, township 53, range 26, west of fourth meridian. George H. L. Bossange, deputy returning officer.

Sturgeon River polling division comprises the western halves of townships 53, 56, 57 and 58, range 23; all of townships 53, 56, 57 and 58, range 24. Polling station at Sturgeon river school house No. 24, section 3, township 55, range 24, west of fourth meridian. Geo. Sutherland, deputy returning officer.

Lake St. Ann polling division comprises all that part of St. Albert district west of range 1, west of fifth meridian. Polling station at Hudson's Bay Company's store. Thomas Taylor, deputy returning officer.

Qu'Appelle Vidette: The numbers of summary dismissals from the N. W. M. P. recently made for more or less trivial offences is but a poor and mean way of effecting the reduction the Government is desirous of making in that force, especially when the men so discharged are constables who have nearly completed the term of service entitling them to a pension. The police could soon be sufficiently reduced in numbers by taking no recruits and granting discharges to those who wished to leave. Too rapid and open a reduction is very likely to lead to incursions of horse thieves and train robbers from the U. S., and few of the outrages so rare in the Canadian Northwest hitherto, would soon render such reduction a very poor piece of economy. At the same time we think the N. W. M. P. authorities by retaining such a large force at Regina in comparative uselessness instead distributing the men throughout the country and making them more generally serviceable for the extinction of prairie fires, &c., have themselves to blame for the reduction in the force now being made.

FREIGHT RATES ENQUIRY.

The freight rates commission arrived on Monday's train and comprises P. S. Archibald, of the Intercolonial railway; chairman, W. Pierce, Insp. of mines; W. H. Allison, homestead inspector, and H. W. Schaefer, of the Intercolonial railway, secretary, and accompanied by F. F. Dixon, official stenographer. According to arrangements the commission sat in the town council chamber at 3 p. m. on Tuesday. They were met by the president, vice-president, secretary and a large number of the members of the board of trade and other citizens. T. G. Hutchings, county president of the patrons of industry was also present representing that organization. The proceedings were opened by the reading of the commission of appointment by the secretary Mr. Schaefer. The commission was dated 27th November, 1894, and was given to enquire into complaints made as to excessive and discriminating charges made by the C. P. R. on its western division. The authority for the commission was given by the railway act of 88, section 12, and included power to take evidence under oath and to require the attendance of persons and the production of papers. Circulars had been sent out in November to postmasters and other persons announcing the appointment of the commission, its scope and the places where it would sit. Owing to many of the places where it had been intended the commission should sit not desiring to offer any complaints, it had been found impossible to delay the visit of the commission to Edmonton as long as had been intended. It was only on Friday last that the commission had found they must visit Edmonton at once and a telegram had been despatched to Isaac Cowie, secretary of the board of trade, announcing the present sitting.

The chairman then declared the commission ready to receive evidence, and Mr. Cowie secretary of the board of trade proceeded to offer the statement compiled by the board. The chairman asked if the statement was to be taken as the whole of the board or of the whole district. Mr. Cowie replied that as it affected the whole district it might be taken as the statement of the district. Mr. Cowie was then sworn, and on proceeding to read the statement compiled, on alluding to express rates, the chairman informed him that the scope of the commission did not extend to express, but only to freight and passenger rates. Mr. Cowie then proceeded with his statement. The length of this statement owing to its many comparisons makes it impossible to publish more than a few of the statements and comparisons made.

The chairman sets forth the present condition of the question of export freight rates: "While we regret the necessity for appointing this commission we beg to thank the government for having appointed it to hear and record our well found grievances, for which we hope the parliament of Canada may find an effectual remedy. We do not resort to you without having previously and repeatedly made our wants and needs known to the proper officers of the C. P. R. with whom we have had an extensive correspondence on the subject. . . . In consequence of our representations the rates on grain, breadstuffs, etc., for export to Vancouver in carload lots, were reduced on the 12th February, 1894, from 50c to 35c per 100 lbs, which though a big cut did not give us the rate of 28c per 100 lbs. to which by comparison with other points on the western division we had proved ourselves to be fully entitled. On the 6th of March, 1894, the following reductions were also made: On cattle to Vancouver from 93¢ to 90c, a rate of 52¢c having been requested. On coal to Calgary from $3.90 to $2.40 per ton, being 40c more than the $2.00 rate asked for. On millstuff, potatoes, and coarse grains to Calgary from 30c to 24c per 100 lbs., 7c more than requested. On hay and straw to points on the MacLeod branch from $2.20 to $3.00 per ton, instead of the $2.00 rate asked for. After a trial to do business at the above rates which were not so absolutely prohibitive as those they superseded we found that we could not do so to advantage, and we again appealed in August last, getting in reply a reduction of 15c per ton on coal to Calgary.

An analysis of the several tariffs examined and cited, shows that the lowest tariffs obtain in the east and are augmented more and more as applied to each stage of the route to the west.

TABLE OF LONG HAULS.

Miles	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Halifax to Montreal	846	.66	.58	.50	.41 .33
Montreal to P. Arthur	963	1.15	.97	.74	.51 .41
P. Arthur to Winnipeg	424	.93	.79	.65	.56 .47
Winnipeg to Edmonton	1032	2.45	2.05	1.65	1.22 1.00
Edmonton to Vancouver	532	2.92	2.44	1.95	1.45 1.34

As compared with the rate per mile between Halifax and Montreal that between Montreal and Port Arthur is 29 per cent. higher; between Port Arthur and Winnipeg it is 161 per cent. higher; between Winnipeg and Edmonton it is 170 per cent. higher; and between Edmonton and Vancouver 296 per cent. higher.

TABLE OF SHORT HAULS.

Miles	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Toronto to Mallorytown	195	.40	.35	.30	.25 .20
Winnipeg to Whitewater	192	.83	.70	.57	.43 .38
Calgary to Edmonton	192	1.00	.84	.68	.50 .45

As compared with the rate per mile between Mallorytown and Toronto that between Winnipeg and Whitewater is 94 per cent. higher and between Calgary and Edmonton 131 per cent. higher.

LONG AND SHORT HAULS COMPARED.

Miles	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Edmonton to Calgary	192	1.00	.84	.68	.50 .45
Toronto to Halifax	1095	.96	.75	.65	.54 .43

LONG HAULS FROM LOCAL POINTS.

Miles	1st	3rd	5th	7th	10th
Edmonton to Winnipeg	1032	2.75	1.85	1.24	.75 .62
Finmark to Montreal	1031	1.81	1.21	.78	.53 .45

This shows an average overcharge of 44c per 100 lbs. or 45 per cent against Edmonton and on fifth class finds a discrimination of 59 per cent. Finmark to Montreal includes the North Shore route, the most expensive of the whole route to build and very expensive to operate. Edmonton to Winnipeg is all on the prairie section, the cheapest part of the whole route to build and operate.

To compensate us for the fact that no reductions are made to us for the long hauls from the east, we might at least expect to get a fair rate to the west which is for geographical reasons our only possible export market. The excuse made for the "high rates west is that the route is the "most expensive and difficult to operate on the continent," and in consequence an addition which we term in this statement computed mileage is made to the actual mileage in framing (some of) their tariffs. We are prepared to make due allowance for the extra difficulty of operating the mountain section provided this factor is equally taken into account in framing tariffs in other places as well as between Edmonton and its markets. While this computed mileage is borne in mind as against Edmonton it appears to be entirely omitted in framing tariffs and is taken little account of in many other instances. The computed mileage added on the mountain section between Edmonton and Vancouver is 333 miles increasing the actual distance of 834 miles to 1167 miles. This addition is made entirely to the mountain section between Canmore and Vancouver an actual distance of 575 miles being an addition of .58 per mile on that section. Although the C. P. R. argue that rates should be proportionately higher from Edmonton to points on the route of difficult operation in the mountain sections yet we find that through rates given in these tariffs show a discrimination against Edmonton which is on the prairie section as compared with points on the mountain section as follows:

Miles	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Port Arthur to Donald	1447	3.07	2.56	2.05	1.54 1.41
P. Arthur to Revelstoke	1527	3.24	2.70	2.16	1.62 1.49
P. Arthur to Larkin	1609	3.34	2.78	2.22	1.66 1.53
P. Arthur to Edmonton	1456	3.34	2.79	2.23	1.66 1.50

This table shows that Donald, west of the most difficult section of this most difficult route and only 9 miles nearer Port Arthur than Edmonton, has a better rate than Edmonton by a average of 18c per class. Revelstoke, west of all the great difficulties of this difficult route and 71 actual miles further from Port Arthur than Edmonton has a considerably less rate, than Edmonton and Larkin 153 miles further from Port Arthur, still further west of the great difficulties of the mountain section and 30 miles out on a branch line besides, has practically the same rate as Edmonton. The tables quoted from go to show that freight in these sections of difficult operation is carried at a very small advance on the rates charged on the prairie sections of the main line, the difference between Donald and Ashcroft, both in the mountain section, 254 miles, and Moose Jaw and Dunmore in the prairie section 261 miles being only 20c per 100 lbs. on the total schedule a difference of 12 per cent.

The special tariff given Winnipeg wholers only, shows like differences against Edmonton as compared with Donald, Revelstoke and Larkin as in the tariff already quoted, the difference in favor of Donald being 13 per cent. per class in favor of Revelstoke .084 per class while Larkin 153 miles further has practically the same rate.

If the proportion of computed mileage is added to the distance from Winnipeg to points in the mountain section as it is to the mileage from Edmonton to Vancouver the discrimination against Edmonton is shown in a much stronger light.

Miles	1st	2nd	3rd	4th	5th
Donald, 67 extra,	1091	2.16	1.81	1.45	1.09 .98
Revelstoke, 114 extra,	1217	2.33	1.94	1.56	1.18 1.07
Larkin, 161 extra,	1346	2.46	2.06	1.65	1.23 1.11
Edmonton, 1032	2.45	2.05	1.65	1.22	1.14

On the basis of the rates given to these points on their computed mileage a discrimination against Edmonton is shown of 20 per cent as compared with Donald, 27 per cent as compared with Revelstoke and 29 per cent as compared with Sicomus.

GENERAL NEWS.

There are three cases of small pox in Guelph, Ont.

Instead of the Empire absorbing the Mail it is the Mail which absorbs the Empire. On Feb. 1st, the entire Empire staff received one weeks notice of dismissal.

The prospectus of the Atlantic and Lake Superior railway has been issued in London England. The line will run from the Atlantic port of Paspébiac to Sault Ste. Marie, by way of Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa. The Dominion government is to guarantee the bonds.

A Free Press Ottawa despatch of Feb. 1st says: Everything now points to a general election and it is now regarded as a certainty. A new proclamation respecting the meeting of parliament must appear in the Official Gazette of this day week, and it will be impossible for the government to delay the announcement of their programme beyond that date.

The Free Press in mentioning that the reformers of East Hastings have decided to support the Patron Candidate, remarks: Canada would secure the greatest benefits from a coalition of Patrons and reformers. The East Hastings reformers in supporting a Patron have made a move in this direction. Shortly, many candidates will be nominated for all Canadian constituencies; and Patrons and reformers place but one anti-protectionist in the field and unite in supporting him, their united strength will be far more likely to win victory, than will the divided forces of voters who are really working for the same reform.

The Macleod Gazette in its latest issue has an article under the heading: "Is Alberta Safe" and explains that it means to ask is Alberta safe to return a conservative at the next election. The danger in the eyes of the Gazette appears to lie in the possible candidature of the editor of this great journal as a liberal or independent. It sizes up the situation thus: "Southern Alberta even, which has earned for itself deservedly the name of "the solid South," there has been growing dissatisfaction with the existing state of affairs. So far as Macleod is concerned, the matter of the railway and the townsites, whether the government or our own member was to blame, exasperated a good many and the refusal of the gov. to build a court house, its apathy in the matter of irrigation and the removal of the Judges, have not poured oil on the trouble waters. In Lethbridge, Cardston, and all through the settlement to the south too, as well as here, there is a feeling abroad that the gov.'s Tariff Reform Bill of last session was a farce, and that the burdensome taxation on the necessities of life, which presses particularly hard on the shoulders of new communities, might be materially lightened. All these causes will operate to give Mr. Oliver, if he runs, a largenumber of votes in Southern Alberta, and these taken with his majorities in the north, will give him a very fair show of being elected. The only thing which might operate to prevent this would be the selection of a really strong man by the conservative party, who would have independence enough to vote against his party if it became necessary to do so, who is well known in the constituency, personally popular, one who has knowledge of the necessities of the country, ability enough to make them known and force enough to make himself felt. Is there such a one? Do the gentlemen who have been mentioned as candidates, some of whom by the way are actively canvassing, fulfil the conditions? We don't wish to be personal, but candor compels us to say that most of them don't."

DECISION IN FERRY CASE.

William Humberstone vs. James Dinner, et al:

This is an action of damage against the defendants for using and operating a ferry within the limits of the municipality.

The facts in short are these: The plaintiff on 3rd Jan., 1894, was granted by the Municipality of the town of Edmonton, a license to use and operate two ferries on the river Saskatchewan, with the exclusive right to ferry upon the said river within the limits of the said municipality.

The defendants calling themselves the "Edmonton Ferry Co." on the 11th day of July 1894, constructed, established, maintained and used a cable ferry * * * on said river within the limits of said municipality at a distance of about 100 yards from the eastern ferry, being one of said plaintiff's two ferries. The defendants contend that the municipality has no power to grant the license in question: 1st because the legislative assembly had no authority to pass ch. 28 of revised ordinances, in so far as it effects navigable rivers;
and 2nd even if the legislative assembly had that right, they had delegated that power to the municipality to be exercised in a special manner, to wit: by by-law.

By sub-section 10 of the British North America Act (1867) "navigation and shipping" are under the exclusive powers of the parliament of Canada.

It is admitted that the river Saskatchewan is a navigable river. I am at a loss to know by what authority or power the legislative assembly can give to municipalities the right to license ferries over such rivers with the exclusive right of operating such ferries.
I would readily understand that the legislative assembly had the power to regulate ferries within the limits of the Territories under sec. 13 sub-section 13 of chap. 22-54, 55, Vic., but that power cannot be extended so as to mean that the legislative assembly can give the exclusive right to any person to use and operate a ferry on a navigable river. In order to be more explicit, I mean that the legislative assembly may regulate the fares that ferry-men might charge; the conduct, running, size and management of ferries; it may also, I believe, exact a certain tax from all ferries plying on any navigable streams, within the Territories; but it cannot prevent any man or any set of men from working, using or operating ferries, unless such special authority or power be given by the Dominion parliament to the legislative assembly. Besides, how can it be contended that a local legislature can exercise authority over a river which it does not own or control.

I have come to the conclusion that chap. 28 of the revised ordinances is ultra vires in respect of that part of
sec. 2 which purports to grant exclusive rights to ferry upon any navigable water.

By sec. 4 of ordinance No. 7 of 1891-92, the municipality of the town of Edmonton is given the same powers, rights, authority, duty and privileges as those provided in the "ferry ordinance," chap. 28, revised ordinances.
There is no provision in the said incorporation ordinance of the town of Edmonton, how such powers, authority &c., &c., is to be exercised. However sec. 2 of the said ordinance provides that all the provisions of the municipal ordinance are incorporated therein. I have therefore to refer to sec. 69 of the municipal ordinance which enacts that "municipalities may control and license ferries * erected or authorized by them within their jurisdiction and pass by-laws allowing the collection of tolls thereon for periods not exceeding five years." In this case nothing of the kind was done. No by-law was passed allowing the collection of tolls. The council thought that a simple resolution was sufficient and allowed the plaintiff to collect tolls when he had no right to do so. A corporation has by law a certain way of binding itself or binding others and unless it follows the law, its acts are ultra vires of its powers.
In this instance the law provides that the collection of tolls on ferries should be authorized by by-law, and when the corporation attempted to authorize the same thing by resolution, it had no power to do so.

I am of opinion that, 1st the municipality had no power or authority to give an exclusive right of ferry on the river Saskatchewan, because it is a navigable stream, and 2nd the municipality had no right or power to authorize by resolution the collection of tolls on said ferries; it should have been authorized by by-law.

For these reasons the plaintiff must fail in his action, and judgment must be entered in favor of the defendants with costs.

SCHOOL MEETING.

A meeting of the Edmonton school board was held on Saturday evening in St. George Jellett's office, all members present.

The following accounts were passed: Pay sheet, January, $307.16; Ross Bros., hardware, 8.75; J. Lauder, jr., banking school, 2.00; J. Cameron, brooms etc., 12.45.

Cameron—Lauder moved that the secretary's salary be increased from $120 to $150 for the year, to date from Jan. 1st, 1895.

Cameron—Bellamy moved that the application of the Royal Templars of Temperance to rent the upper part of the Fraser avenue school building be declined as the room was already partly occupied as a store room and the insurance would be increased.

McCauley—Lauder moved that the secretary order 12 new two seated desks, in order to increase the seating accommodation of the schools, which at present is insufficient.

McCauley—Cameron moved that taxes to the amount of $63.47 be written off as uncollectable, chiefly of persons who had left the country.

McCauley—Cameron moved that lots 55, 56, 57 and 58 block 5, H. B. reserve be sold for taxes, and that the secretary be instructed to collect all arrears of taxes.

The certificates of the several teachers who had been engaged, were examined and pronounced satisfactory.

A report was made by the principal Mr. Francis, showing that the primary department in the central school was much overcrowded, there being a greater average attendance than there was seating accommodation, and that the intermediate and Fraser avenue primary departments were also full.
